ARTICLE V
TENETS OF FAITH AND DOCTRINE

The members of this Church, exercising their right to religious freedom under the United States Constitution, (1) accepts the Scriptures as the revealed Will of God, the all sufficient rule of faith and practice, (2) worship the Jesus Christ of Scripture as Lord, God the Son, Head of the Church, and the only Savior of the World, and (3) for the purpose of maintaining general unity, adopt these Statements of Fundamental Truths and Doctrine.

Section 1. The Scriptures Inspired.

(a) The Bible is the inspired Word of God, a revelation from God to man, the infallible rule of faith and conduct, and is superior to experience, traditions, reason and conscience (II Tim. 3:15-17; I Peter 1:23-25; Heb. 4:12).

(b) The light of nature and the works of creation do very far show the existence, power, and glory of God (Psa. 19:1-3), and any one not following the light, nor obeying the law of nature as made manifest to him, is without excuse (Rom. 1:19-20), yet the nature and will of God were never discovered by his works (I Cor. 1:21); he therefore graciously condescended to give us a revelation of the mystery that was kept secret since the world began (Rom. 16:25), and to reveal unto us by his Holy Spirit the hidden wisdom which was unknown to the princes of the world, and the things which had never entered in the heart of man (I Cor. 2:7-10).

(c) All the books of the Old and New Testaments, except those usually known as Apocrypha, should be considered canonical, and received as the sacred testimony of God, which is perfect and sure (Psa. 19:7; I John 5:9).

(d) The Scriptures are given by inspiration of God and are sufficient for our correction and instruction in righteousness, and are designed to make us perfect and thoroughly furnished unto all good works (II Tim. 3:16-17).

(e) Any rule of faith and action offered to, or imposed upon the Church, other than the Sacred Scriptures, should be discarded (Gal. 1:8-9).

(f) The word of God is well adapted to our depraved state (Psa. 107:20), suited to our comprehension (Psa. 119:130; Isa. 35:8), and is a lamp to our feet, and a light to our pathway (Psa. 119:105).
(g) The Scriptures were written by holy men of God as they were instructed by the Holy Spirit (II Pet. 1:21; II Sam. 23:2), and are designed to give us comfort and hope (Rom. 15:4), and to make us wise unto salvation (II Tim. 3:15).

(h) All doctrines, sentiments and opinions should be expressed, as nearly as possible, in Scripture language, as being the least likely to be misunderstood or to give offence (I Cor. 10:32; II Cor. 6:3; Rom. 16:17). Besides, no great error is likely to be imbibed, or propagated, while all strictly adhere to the law and to the testimony (Isaiah 8:20; Matt. 5:19).

(i) If the sectary, or any other, should find too little in these sentiments of the Church to answer all his inquiries on the points mentioned, it is because his inquiries cannot be conveniently answered in the language of inspiration, from which it is not expedient to deviate (John 5:39; Rev. 22:18-19). However, if he will do the will of God he may know of his doctrine (John 7:17), and of the mysteries of his kingdom (Luke 8:10; Matt. 13:11; John 5:45-47).

Section 2. God.

(a) The One and True God. The triune God is comprised of three (3) distinct personalities, The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit, who are eternally self-existent, self-revealed and one. Jesus Christ, who is God manifested in the flesh, is the second member of the God, co-equal and co-eternal with The Father and The Holy Spirit.

(b) The Father.

(1) All our knowledge of God in this life, must necessarily be very imperfect (Job 11:7; Rom. 11:33-34). We, therefore, should be very careful in all our expressions which have any allusion to the Almighty (Ex. 20:7; Psa. 99:5), and use only those appellations of him which are found in the Holy Scriptures.

(2) There is but one only living and true God (Deut. 6:4; I Cor. 8:4; I Thess. 1:9), unchangeable (Mal. 3:6), incomprehensible (Job 37:5; Psa. 145:3), who inhabiteth eternity (Isa. 57:15), whose years are throughout all generations (Psa. 102:24), who is from everlasting to everlasting (Psa. 90:2), the Creator of all things (Gen. 1:1; Rev. 4:11), the Preserver of life (Job 7:20; Psa. 36:6; Acts 17:28), only wise (Rom. 16:27), just (Deut. 32:4; Isa. 45:21), holy (Isa. 6:3; Rev. 4:8); full of love (I John 4:8) and compassion (Lam. 3:22); gracious, merciful, long-suffering; abundant in goodness and truth, forgiving iniquity, transgression and sin (Ex. 34:6-7), the rewarder of them that diligently seek him (Heb. 11:6); yet terrible in his doings (Psa. 66:5), visiting the iniquities of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generations of them that hate him (Ex. 20:5), and taking vengeance upon them that know him not (II Thes. 1:7-8).

(3) God is a spirit (John 4:24), eternal, immortal, invisible (I Tim. 1:17), the only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords (I Tim. 6:15), of whom, and through whom, and to whom, are all things (Rom. 11:36); his judgments are unsearchable, and his ways past finding out (Rom.: 11:33), and his understanding is infinite (Psa. 147:5); he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath (Deut. 4:39), to whom we should give glory forever (I Peter 4:11).

(c) The Son.

(1) The Lord Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God (John 3:18); full of grace and truth (John 1:14), the Savior of the world (John 4:42; Titus 3:4), the Word which was in the beginning with God, and was God, and by whom all things were made (John 1:1-3); who is the brightness of the Father’s glory, and the express image of his person, and who upholds all things by the word of his power (Hebrews 1:3), the Alpha and Omega, the first and the last (Rev. 1:11); God manifest in the flesh (I Tim. 3:16), who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God (Phil. 2:6), one with the Father (John 10:30).

(2) He is the mediator between God and man (I Tim. 2:5); the Prophet (Acts 3:22), Priest (Heb. 5:6; Heb. 7:17), and King (Psa. 2:6); head of the Church (Eph. 5:23; Eph. 1:22; Col. 1:18); the heir of all things (Heb. 1:2), and judge of the world (Acts 17:31).

(3) The Lord Jesus was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquities, and with his stripes we are healed (Isa. 53:5); he bore our sins in his own body (I Pet. 2:24); he is our advocate with the Father (I John 2:1), and makes reconciliation for sin (Heb. 2:17); he died for our sins (I Cor. 15:3), that we might live with him (I Thess. 5:10); through him we have access to the Father (Eph. 2:18) and peace with God (Rom. 5:1), and through his name alone can we be saved (Acts. 4:12).

d) The Holy Spirit.

(1) The Holy Spirit is the Comforter who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, the Spirit of truth (John 15:26; Gal. 4:6; Acts 5:3-4; Ex. 17:7 and Heb. 3:7-9), whom Christ promised to send unto his disciples, and declared that when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment (John 16:8).

(2) The Holy Spirit helpeth our infirmities, searcheth the heart, and maketh intercession for the saints (Rom. 8:26-27). He imparteth wisdom, knowledge, and faith (I Cor. 12:8, 9), and by him we are justified and sanctified (I Cor. 6:11).

(3) He searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God, and reveals them unto us (I Cor. 2:10), that we may know the things that are freely given to us of God (I Cor. 2:11; Rom. 8:16); he is our teacher (Luke 12:12; I Cor. 2:13), and we are saved by the renewing of the Holy Spirit (Titus 3:5).

Section 3. Man, His Fall and Redemption.

(a) Man was created good and upright, for God said, “Let us make man in Our image, after Our likeness”. But, man, by voluntary transgression, fell and his only hope of redemption is in Jesus Christ the Son of God (Genesis 1:26-31, 3:1-7; Romans 5:12-21).

(b) The Scriptures have concluded all under sin (Gal. 3:22; See Rom. 3:9), and have declared that there is none righteous (Rom. 3:10; See Psa. 14:1-3); but that all have strayed like sheep, and have come short of the glory of God (Rom. 3:23).

(c) The carnal mind is enmity against God (Rom. 8:7), and in the flesh dwelleth no good thing (Rom. 7:18); the heart too, is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked (Jer. 17:9).

Section 4. The Salvation of Man.

(a) Man’s only hope of redemption is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ. On the cross Jesus Christ became sin and sickness providing both salvation and divine healing for all mankind (Psalm 103:3), being justified freely by His Grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. For by grace we are saved through faith.

“The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart—that is, the word of faith which we are preaching, that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved; for with the heart man believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation” (Romans 3:24; Ephesians 2:8; Romans 10:8-10).

(b) The Evidence of Salvation. The inward evidence to the believer of his salvation, is the direct witness of the Spirit (Romans 8:16). The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness. “And this is His commandment that we believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as He commanded us.” (1 John 3:23); ... while you are waiting for these things to happen and for him to come, try hard to live without sinning; and be at peace with everyone so that he will be pleased with you when he returns (II Peter 3:14 LB).

(c)  Faith, Repentance, and Works.

(1) Salvation is by faith in Jesus Christ and not by human works; however, our works will determine the rewards in eternity (Romans 10:9-1 and II Cor. 5:10).

(2) God hath particularly enjoined all men everywhere to repent (Acts 17:30), and the Savior hath expressly declared that, “Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish” (Luke 13:3, 5); but repentance must include conversion (Acts 3:19), and be connected with faith (Mark 1:15; 1 John 5:1; John 1:13; John 3:3; Acts 20:21), in order to justification. (Rom. 5:1; Gal. 3:24).

(3) The preaching of repentance (II Cor. 7:10) was the chief business of the apostles when Christ first sent them forth (Mark 6:12), and it should be the chief business of every minister of the Gospel now (Luke 24:47), and also to declare the fact that we are saved by grace through faith (Eph. 2:8) in the Lord Jesus (John 11:25-26).

Section 5.  Baptism in Water.

(a) The ordinance of baptism by a burial with Christ should be observed as commanded in the Scriptures by all who have really repented and in their hearts have truly believed on Christ as Savior and Lord. In so doing, they declare to the world that they have died with Jesus and that they have also been raised with Him to walk in newness of life. (Matt. 28:19; Acts 10:47, 48; Romans 6:4).

(b) Baptism is a sacrament of the New Testament, instituted by the Lord Jesus, and should be perpetuated and strictly observed (Matt. 28:19).

(c) By this solemn ordinance we profess to have put on Christ (Gal. 3:27), which is also to us a sign and seal of covenant of grace (Rom. 4:11), of regeneration by his Spirit (John 3:5; Mark 16:16), remission of sins (Acts 2:38-38; Acts 22:16; Acts 10:47), and of assurance to walk in newness of life (Rom. 6:3, 5).

(d) Respecting the mode, or the subject of baptism, every one should be fully persuaded in his own mind (Rom. 14:5).

Section 6.  The Lord’s Supper.

(a) The Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, instituted the Sacrament called the Lord’s Supper, to be observed in his Church in perpetual remembrance of him and in order to show his death till he come (I Cor. 11:23-26; Matt. 26:28; Mark 14: 22-24; Luke 22:19-20).

(b) This Sacrament is the communion of the blood and body of Christ (I Cor. 10:16), and should be given unto, and received by all the true followers of our Lord (I Cor. 10:17); but every one should carefully examine himself that he may not eat and drink unworthily, not discerning the Lord’s body (I Cor. 11: 27-29).

Section 7.  The Church.  The church is the body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfillment of her great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in Heaven (Ephesians 1:22; 2:19-22; Hebrews 12:23).

(a)  The Catholic or Universal Church.

(1) The catholic or universal Church is composed of all those everywhere, throughout the world, who exercise repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 20:21).

(2) The members of the Church may belong to various denominations, and though they are sometimes taught to regard one another as heretics (Mark 9:38-40; Luke 9:49-50), yet they form but one body, of which Christ is the Head (I Cor. 10:17; Col. 1:18).

(3) The Savior came into the world to establish one Church (Matt. 16:18), not many; and all the redeemed are brethren (Matt. 23:8), and members of the Church (I Cor. 12:20; Eph. 4:25, and 5:30).

(4) The Church is sometimes spoken of in the Scriptures as a family (Eph. 3:15), of which God is the Father (Eph. 4:6), and as a household (Eph. 2:19), which should not be divided against itself (Mark 3:25; Matt. 12:25).

(5) All the principles, operations (I Cor. 12:6), and offices (Rom. 12:4-8) of the Church ought to harmonize in the administration (I Cor. 12:5) of the Redeemer’s kingdom on earth, so that all the members (I Cor. 12:12, 13) may be brought into fellowship (I John 1:3, 6-7) and communion with one another.

(b) The Christian Church (This Church).

(1) THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH may be composed of any part or of all those on the earth who constitute the body, of which Christ is the Head (Col. 1:18, 24).

(2) But at present it embraces only a part of those who desire the reformation of the wicked (Isa. 55:7; Matt. 9:13; Mark 2:17), the spiritual worship of God (John 4:24), and the union of the great brotherhood of Christian (John 10:16; John 17:11, 21-22).

(3) The Christian Church is sincerely opposed to contentions and schisms in the body (I Cor. 12:25), and firmly believes that envying, strife, and divisions (I Cor. 3:3-5, 21-22) are hurtful to the Church and antagonistic to the teachings and spirit of our holy religion (I Cor. 1:10-13; I Cor. 11:18).

(4) One of the chief features of this Church is an ardent desire to secure and propagate the fruits of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22-23), and to cultivate brotherly love (I John 4:7).

(5) The Church holds to the essential doctrines of evangelical Christianity, and does not purpose to controvert the doctrines or usages of other denominations. It asks, rather, their co-operation in extending the benefits and comforts of our common religion to all mankind (Titus 1:4; Jude 3).

(6) The purpose of this Church is to effect a union of all the followers of our Lord Jesus Christ of every persuasion (Mark 9:40; John 17:21), and to secure, if possible, the associate efforts of all true religious teachers in pointing the wicked to the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world (John 1:29).

(7) The particular doctrines and tenets which have confused and distracted the Christian world are remanded to private judgment, and hence cease to be matters for debate, only in so far as may be necessary to prevent a sectarian influence from entering the Church (I Cor. 3:3-5. and 1:10-13).

(8) They require no compromise in faith or opinion of any child of God in order to communion or fellowship (Matt. 23:8; Luke 9:10), here denominational distinctions cease to exist and Christian love binds the brotherhood together I Thess. 4:9).

(9) The purpose of this Church will be consummated in the conversion of the world (Psalms 2:8; Col. 3:11), and the union of all Christians (Eph. 4:13).
The Principles of the Christian Church.

1. The nature of the Church as set forth [above], seems to require that the principles of the Church be general, rather than particular, yet comprehensive, embracing all those truths, facts, and doctrines which are indisputably revealed, and allowing each individual to form his own opinion upon minor points according to the best light and evidence before him (Rom. 14:4-6).

2. The Scriptures contain an abundance of indisputable (I Tim. 6:4-5; Phil. 2:14; Rom. 14:1) truth quite sufficient for the moral guidance of man, and very well adapted to the comprehension of the most simple-minded (Isa. 35:8; Isa 8:5 & 9:4).

3. These facts being admitted, we may well afford to dispense with all those doctrines and tenets which set the brethren at variance (Gal. 5:15), and to take the following general principles as the ground-work of our organization, viz:

   (i) The Lord Jesus Christ is the only HEAD of the Church (Col. 1:18; Eph. 1:22-23; Eph. 4:15). Any other pretending to be head thereof, should be regarded as that man of sin and son of perdition, who exalteth himself above all that is called God (Matt. 23:8-10; II Thess. 2:3-4).

   (ii) The name CHRISTIAN (Isaiah 62:2; Acts 11:26, and 26:28; I Pet. 4:16) is the only appellation needed or received by the Church. All party or sectarian names are excluded as being unnecessary, if not hurtful (I Cor. 3:4; Rev. 3:12 & 2:13; Eph. 3:15).

   (iii) The HOLY BIBLE, or the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, is a sufficient rule of faith and practice (II Tim. 3:16-17; Rev. 22:18-19).

   (iv) CHRISTIAN CHARACTER, or vital piety, is a just, and should be the only, test of fellowship or of Church membership (Matt. 7:21; Mark 16:16; John 3:15; John 11:25-26 & 6:47; I John 2:5, & 3:6-9; John 13:34-35; Matt. 22:37-40).

   (v) The right of private judgment and the liberty of conscience is a right and a privilege that should be accorded to and exercised by all (Rom. 14:4; Matt. 15:9; Gal. 5:13; II Pet. 3:16; Acts 5:29 & 4:19).

4. The Church thinks it well to avoid all debates and disputations (I Tim. 6:20; II Tim. 2:16; II Cor. 12:20), especially of a public character, which tend to create strife, enmity or division (Rom. 16:17; I Cor. 3:3) among the followers of Christ.

5. The labors of the ministry should not involve the use of means which are of doubtful propriety, but should be confined to the use of those spiritual weapons which are mighty, through God, to the pulling down of strongholds (II Cor. 10:4).

Section 8. The Resurrection.

(a) Jesus is coming again to gather all His Saints to Heaven (I Cor. 15:51-52; I Thess. 4:16-17; and II Thess. 2:1).

(b) There is no fact more clearly revealed in the Holy Scriptures than that there will be a general resurrection both of the righteous and of the wicked (John 5:28-29; Dan. 12:2-3; Acts 24:15).

(c) Jesus is the author of the resurrection and of life (John 11:25); he assuredly rose from the dead (Luke 24:34; Psa. 16:10; Acts 4:33; I Cor. 15:20), and he declared that as certainly as he lives we shall live also (John 14:19).
(d) The doctrine of the resurrection tends to encourage us, and to inspire us with hope, as we are assured that all them which sleep in Jesus, God will bring with him (I Thess. 4:13-14).

Section 9. The Last Judgment.
(a) God hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by Jesus Christ (Acts 17:31), whom he hath ordained to be the judge of the quick and dead (Acts 10:42; II Tim. 4:1; I Peter 4:5); and all that have ever lived upon the earth, both small and great, must appear before the judgment seat of Christ to give an account of the deeds done in the body, whether they be good or bad (Rev. 20:12-13; II Cor. 5:10; Rom. 14:10).

(b) When all nations shall be gathered before the throne for judgment, the Lord will separate the righteous from the wicked (Matt. 25:31-32), and then every work and every secret thing shall be made known (Eccl. 12:14; Rom. 2:16), and men shall give an account of every evil word they have spoken (Matt. 12:36).

Section 10. The Punishment of the Wicked.
(a) Those who have not accepted the redemptive work of Jesus Christ will suffer eternal separation from the God. The devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, and anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life, shall be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake of fire which burns with brimstone. This is the second death, the lake of fire (Rev. 19:20; 20:10-15).

(b) When the world shall be judged in righteousness by the Lord Jesus (Acts 17:31), the wicked shall be driven into everlasting fire (Matt. 25:41-46), and the smoke of their torment shall ascend up forever and ever (Rev. 14:10-11).

(c) The punishment of the wicked shall be extremely severe; they shall be cast into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth (Matt. 22:13; Matt. 25:30); they can never die, so as to escape their suffering, nor can the fire of their torments ever be quenched (Mark 9:43-44).

Section 11. The Rewards of the Righteous.
(a) The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance (Psa. 112:6), and it has not entered into the heart of man, the things that God hath prepared for them that love him (I Cor. 2:9). The godly have the promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come (I Tim. 4:8).

(b) At the last day (John 6:40) the righteous shall sit on the right hand of the Judge, and the Lord will say unto them, “Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world” (Matt. 25:33-34).

(c) Then God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death (Rev. 21:4), and they shall obtain joy and gladness (Isa. 35:10), and enter unto eternal life (Matt. 25:46; Luke 18:30).

Section 12. Christian Life; Scriptural Conduct.
(a) Personal Ethics. “I can do anything I want to if Christ has not said no, but some of these things aren’t good for me. Even if I am allowed to do them, I’ll refuse to if I think they might get such a grip on me that I can’t easily stop when I want to” (I Cor. 6:12 LB). “We can always ‘prove’ that we are right, but is the Lord convinced?” (Proverbs 16:2 LB) “And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you” (I Thessalonians 5:12).
(b) Obedience to Law. “Obey the government, for God is the one who has put it there. There is no government anywhere that God has not placed in power. So those who refuse to obey the laws of the land are refusing to obey God, and punishment will follow” (Romans 13:1-2 LB). “Obey the laws, then, for two reasons: first, to keep from being punished, and second, just because you know you should. Pay your taxes too, for these same two reasons. For government workers need to be paid so that they can keep on doing God’s work, serving you. Pay everyone whatever he ought to have; pay your taxes and import duties gladly, obey those over you, and give honor and respect to all those to whom it is due. Pay all your debts except the debt of love for others—never finish paying that! For if you love them, you will be obeying all of God’s laws, fulfilling all his requirements. Another reason for right living in this: you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for the coming of the Lord is nearer now than when we first believed” (Romans 13:5-8, 11 LB).

(c) Marriage. Marriage is a covenant between a man and woman that God intends to be permanent (Genesis 2:24; Matthew 19:4-6). “Haven’t you read that at the beginning the Creator ‘made them male and female,’ and said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and become united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh? So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate’” (Matthew 19:4-6).

(d) Family; Household. “Honor your father and mother, that you may have a long, good life in the land the Lord your God will give you” (Exodus 20:12). “For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?” (I Timothy 3:5) “Their wives must be thoughtful, not heavy drinkers, not gossipers, but faithful in everything they do” (I Timothy 3:11 LB). “The men you choose must be well thought of for their good lives; they must have only one wife and their children must love the Lord and not have a reputation for being wild or disobedient to their parents. These elders must be men of blameless lives because they are God’s ministers. They must not be proud or impatient; they must not be drunks or fighters or greedy for money” (Titus 1:6-7 LB). “That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children” (Titus 2:2-4).

“You wives must submit to your husbands’ leadership in the same way you submit to the Lord. For a husband is in charge of his wife in the same way Christ is in charge of his body the Church. (He gave his very life to take care of it and be its Savior!) So you wives must willingly obey your husbands in everything, just as the Church obeys Christ. And you husbands, show the same kind of love to your wives as Christ showed to the Church when he died for her, to make her holy and clean, washed by baptism and God’s Word: so that he could give her to himself as a glorious Church without a single spot or wrinkle or any other blemish, being holy and without a single fault. That is how husbands should treat their wives, loving them as parts of themselves.

For since a man and his wife are now one, a man is really doing himself a favor and loving himself when he loves his wife. No one hates his own body but lovingly cares for it, just as Christ cares for his body the Church, of which we are parts. (That the husband and wife are one body is proved by the Scripture which says, “A Man must leave his father and mother when he marries, so the two shall be one.”) So again, I say, a man must love his wife as a part of himself: and the wife must see to it that she deeply respects her husband - obeying, praising and honoring him. Children, obey your parents; this is the right thing to do because God has placed them in authority over you. Honor your father and mother. This is the first of God’s Ten Commandments that ends with a promise. And this is the promise: that if you honor your father and mother, yours will be a long life, full of blessing. And now a word to you parents. Don’t keep on scolding and nagging your children, making them angry and resentful. Rather bring them up with the loving discipline the Lord himself approves, with suggestions and godly advice” (Ephesians 5:22-31, 33-6:4 LB).

(e) Abortions. The unborn child is a human person whose life is valuable in the eyes of God (Exodus 21:22-25; Proverbs 24:11-12; Luke 1:15). “The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call” (Acts 3:39 NIV). “The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ‘Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations’” (Jeremiah 1:4-5). For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was in the secret place. When I was woven together in the depths of the earth, your eyes saw my unformed body. All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be” (Psalm 139:13-16).

(f) Adultery; Immorality. “Thou shalt not commit adultery” (Exodus 20:14). “...try hard to live without sinning; and be at peace with everyone so that he will be pleased with you when he returns” (II Peter 2:14 LB). “You shall not commit adultery. But I say: Anyone who even looks at a woman with lust in his eye has already committed adultery with her in his heart” (Matthew 5:27-28 LB). “...Don’t fool yourselves. Those who live immoral lives, who are idol worshipers, adulterers or homosexuals, will have no share in his Kingdom...” (I Cor. 6:9 LB). “But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no not to eat” (I Cor. 5:11 LB).

(g) Homosexuality. “You shall not lie with a man as with a woman; it is an abomination” (Leviticus 18:22). “...God let go of them and let them do all these evil things, so that even their women turned against God’s natural plan for them and indulged in sex sin with each other. And the men, instead of having a normal sex relationship with women, burned with lust for each other, men doing shameful things with other men and, as a result, getting paid within their own souls with the penalty they so richly deserved. So it was that when they gave God up and would not even acknowledge him, God gave them up to doing everything their evil minds could think of. Their lives became full of every kind of wickedness and sin ....” (Romans 1:26-29). “Don’t you know that those doing such things have no share in the Kingdom of God? Don’t fool yourselves. Those who live immoral lives, who are idol worshipers, adulterers or homosexuals, will have no share in his Kingdom...” (I Cor. 6:9-10).

(h) Control. “...For a man is a slave to whatever controls him” (II Peter 2:19 LB). “Even if we believe that it makes no difference to the Lord whether we do these things, still we cannot just go ahead and do them to please ourselves; for we must bear the burden of being considerate of the doubts and fears of others - of those who feel these things are wrong. Let’s please the other fellow, not ourselves, and do what is for his good and thus build him up in the Lord” (Romans 15:2-3 LB).

(i) Drunkenness; Drugs; Gluttony

(1) “Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defiles the temple of God, him shall God destroy, for the temple of God is holy, which temple are ye” (I Cor. 3:16-17). “Haven’t you yet learned that your body is the home of the Holy Spirit God gave you, and that He lives within you? Your body does not belong to you. For God has bought you with a great price. So use every part of your body to give glory back to God, because He owns it?” (I Cor. 6:19).

(2) “Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God” (I Cor. 6:10 LB). “Let me tell you again as I have before, that anyone living that sort of life will not inherit the Kingdom of God” (Galatians 5:21 LB). “Don’t drink too much wine, for many evils lie along that path; be filled instead with the Holy Spirit, and controlled by Him” (Ephesians 5:18 LB). “For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags” (Proverbs 23:21).

ARTICLE VI
CHURCH COVENANT

This Church acknowledges the faith and covenant of each disciple who confesses sin and seeks forgiveness through Jesus Christ. We look to the scriptures as the Word of God, and to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit to prosper our lives, and make known God’s creation, and the redemptive love of Christ in the world. Having been led as we believe by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ and in accordance to the teachings of Jesus Christ.

We publicly confess Jesus is our Lord and Savior, and through baptism and participation in the Lord’s Supper/Holy Communion we confess our sinful nature and seek His forgiveness for our sins.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this Church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, doctrines, and discipline; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of intoxicating beverages and the excessive use of intoxicating beverages, to use our influence to combat the abuse of drugs and the spread of pornography; and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and Christian courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, and always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place, we will as soon as possible unite with some other church where we carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God’s Word.

ARTICLE VII
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. General

This is a sovereign, congregational Church under the lordship of Jesus Christ. The membership retains unto itself the exclusive right of self-government in all phases of the spiritual and temporal life of this Church.

The membership reserves the exclusive right to determine who shall be members of this Church and the conditions of such membership.

Section 2. Application for Membership. Any person may offer himself as a candidate for membership in the Church. All such candidates shall be presented to the Church at any regular church service for membership in any of the following ways:

(a) By profession of faith and for baptism according to the Tenets of Faith and Doctrine as defined by these Bylaws.
(b) By promise of a letter of recommendation from another Church.
(c) By restoration upon a statement of prior conversion experience and baptism in a Christian Church when no letter is obtainable.
(d) By Watch Care: A person with membership at a church out of town, but temporarily resides in the area of the church, may join this church as a Watch Care member. Membership status is good until changed at the request of the Watch Care member. This person will receive all rights and privileges as other members/disciples as given in the bylaws.

The term member/disciple will denote individuals who have decided to unite with this church as an active participant in attendance, service and giving. Individuals who have repented of his/her sins, confessed publicly Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, is baptized, participates in Holy Communion, and seeks the infilling of the Holy Spirit shall be qualified to become a member of this church. Persistent, knowing disregard of Christian obligation shall be regarded as irresponsible, and could lead to church counseling, discipline, and/or probationary membership status. Current members at the establishment of this document are not required to complete the orientation process.

Section 3. Candidate Orientation. All candidates for membership shall attend candidate orientation for a period printed in the Church Operations Manual.

During this period, candidates shall give clear evidence of their new birth in Christ, live a consistent Christian life and worship at the Church on a regular basis, support the Church financially, subscribe to the Tenets of Faith, Doctrine and Code of Discipline as defined by these Bylaws, and consent, in writing, to be governed by the terms of these Bylaws.

Candidates shall accept awareness that the primary objective of church membership is a quest for spiritual development and maturity, and that they are seeking church membership in order to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and of His Word. Candidates shall also accept that the primary relationship between the Church and its individual members arises from the member’s accountability to the leadership of the Church in the interest of the member’s spiritual growth and enhancing the member’s willfulness to the Body of Christ. Candidates will be asked to sign a consent form prior to orientation; at the end of orientation, they will be issued a certificate of membership. Candidates may be baptized during their orientation process.

A disciple, who has joined this church but has not completed all requirements of membership / discipleship in this church, as determined by the church constitution and bylaws, is accorded probationary membership status. This status is also applicable to disciples who have been placed on probationary status as a result of disciplinary action(s). Probationary membership status accords a disciple all the usual liturgical privileges but none of the other non-religious privileges of church affiliation, e.g., voting, ministry leadership, standing to hold office. If death occurs while in probationary status, the member is accorded burial privileges. Probationary status as a type of membership occurs when a person joins this church either as a candidate for baptism or through Christian experience. After acceptance as a disciple through Christian experience or by baptism, the “new” disciple holds probationary membership status until the disciple has attended the number of new member classes required by the New Member Ministry. Upon completion of the prescribed number of new member classes, the new disciple is accorded full “active” membership status.

Probationary status as a disciplinary measure occurs when a disciple has been subject to discipline for a violation of church doctrine or policy. The disciple’s membership becomes a probationary membership status until the matter has been deemed resolved by the Pastor or church leadership through the completion of counseling or other prescribed rehabilitative action. Upon successful completion of the disciplinary matter, the disciple returns to full “active” membership status until disciples have completed orientation, been presented to and approved by the congregation.

A sustaining member of this church is defined as one who has been absent due to military service, attendance at college or illness or infirmity and is able to maintain an informed participation in the life of this church. Sustaining member status is assigned by the Membership Committee to preserve for the sustaining member, during such absences, the benefits of active membership including the right to vote.

Section 4. Election of Members. At the end of candidate orientation, all candidates for membership shall be considered by the Church at its regular Conference meeting or at any assembly of the congregation, and either approved or disapproved. A voice vote of those church members present and voting shall be required to elect such candidates to active membership.

Section 5. Rights of Active Membership.
(1) Every active member of the Church is entitled to vote at all elections and on all questions submitted to the Church Conference, provided the member is present or provision has been made for absentee balloting.
(2) Every active member of the Church is eligible for consideration by the membership as candidates for elective offices in the Church.
(3) Every active member of the Church is eligible to participate in ministries, programs, and the ordinances of the Church as administered by the Church.

Section 6. Transfer of Membership. Membership in the Church is neither transferable nor assignable.

Section 7. Schools and Seminars. Instruction in the Word of God shall be provided at schools and seminars for members and non-members of the Church. Private Christian education for the body may also be provided.

Section 8. Termination of Membership. Membership shall be terminated in the following ways: (1) death of the member, (2) release to another Christian church, (3) written resignation filed with the secretary by a member who is not being disciplined, (4) exclusion by action of the Church, or, (5) at the discretion of the Church, erasure upon proof of membership in a church of another denomination. Termination of membership as a penalty for violation of church doctrine or policies should be reserved for only the most serious violations and where there is no other action which, in the estimation of the Pastor or designee, is an appropriate response to the violation. The Membership Committee, in consultation with the Pastor and Board of Deacons shall establish a mechanism for the discipline of church members.

First, written charges shall be filed with the Deacons. Then, the accused shall have the right to present his defense in person at a duly called Church meeting. After a fair and impartial hearing of all the witnesses accessible and all the facts ascertainable, the Church has the right and the responsibility to excommunicate an offending member by two-thirds majority of the members present and voting. If the accused is absent from the church meeting, a record of the proceedings shall be sent to him by mail. The Church is required to deal subsequently with excommunicated individuals according to Matthew 18:17 and I Corinthians 5:1-13.

The Membership Committee shall use the Church Constitution and Bylaws to describe the minimum obligations of a member/disciple. When a disciple falls short of these minimal obligations to the extent that termination is required, the Pastor or designee provides documentation of the termination of membership to the Church Clerk.

The Church Clerk will keep documentation of termination of membership on file for five (5) years.

The inactive member of this church is defined as one whom within a calendar year has not financially supported the church, is not an active member or sustaining member or a member in probationary status; has moved from the community or whose address is unknown or requests such status. An inactive member shall not be extended the church privilege of an active member.

(a) Cooperative Action. The members of the Church shall give consent to its forms of government, together with the past policies, and to the policy of fundamental unity and agreement, alike in doctrine, conduct and action, and shall conform to the Scriptural injunctions that there be no division in the body. They shall be subject to leaders of the Church as the Word of God plainly teaches that the principles of Christian fellowship may be kept inviolate and perpetuated, recognizing its fundamental importance.

(b) Attitude Toward Strife. Inasmuch as no Christian institution can comply with the plain teaching of Scripture unless unity and harmony predominate within its circle, no member of the Church may use means to incite or engender strife, but shall work in harmony with the other members of the Church and Church leaders as did the early church (Acts 2:42). If there is cause for dissatisfaction, it shall be called to the attention of the Pastor and Board of Elders. At the discretion of the Church, necessary adjustments shall be made (Acts 6:1-7; Matt. 18:15-18).

(c) Attendance. Scripture commands that we “… do not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing …(Hebrews 10:25 NIV); therefore, all members of this Church shall regularly attend the meetings of the Church, including but not limited to, worship, Bible Study,
Sunday School, and Church Conferences.

(d) Financial Support. All members of the Church shall support the programs and needs of the Church in proportion as the Lord shall prosper them (Mal. 3:10; I Cor. 16:1, 2; II Cor. 9:6-9), thereby acknowledging that any institution can stand or be of full service only in proportion as all of the members of the Church accept their responsibility of maintaining it. Consistent failure to honor the commitment of a member to support the Church financially will be considered as grounds for removal of a member.

(e) Formative Discipline. God has ordained that through the comprehensive and faithful preaching of his Word the members of local churches be taught to walk so as to please him. The ministry of the church is to “Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine” (II Tim. 4:2). In addition to this, the church must build up its members by the use of spiritual gifts of both young and old. If mutually sanctifying influences of the whole body, as taught in I Corinthians 12:12-27, be well understood, and every member be satisfied with his God-appointed place, we shall all “grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (II Pet. 3:18). We acknowledge that one’s failure to respond properly to such formative discipline leads to the necessity of implementing corrective discipline.

(f) Corrective Discipline. Corrective discipline is necessary because of conduct or doctrine contrary to biblical standards. No offenses shall be brought before the Church until the instructions of the Lord Jesus Christ have been followed as outlined in Matthew 5: 23, 24 and Matthew 18:15, 16. Corrective discipline always aims for the glory of God, the welfare and purity of the local church and the restoration and spiritual growth of the offender.

(1) Suspension. There are occasions when a member’s slackness in the performance of duty, disorderliness, and departure from the traditions and instructions of the Word of God require church discipline—but of a less severe nature than excommunication (see II Thess. 3:6, 11, 14-15). Nevertheless, serious offense may not be overlooked altogether lest God’s enemies multiply their blasphemies, other saints be emboldened to sin, and the offender be harmed by a failure to test his own soul and appreciate the gravity of his offense.

Therefore, if a member’s disorderliness requires discipline, the Church may suspend the offender from church membership and publicly rebuke him through the elders at a duly called Church meeting. The Church has the right and responsibility to suspend such a one by two-thirds majority of the members present and voting. This discipline consists of temporary suspension of rights to participate in the Lord’s Table, to serve publicly in the Church, and to vote in Church meetings. The offender is not to be treated as an enemy but admonished as a brother.

(g) Some grounds for exercising discipline, suspension of or excommunication from membership in the Church are as follows:

(1) There shall be an annual membership renewal for all members of the Church. Failure to renew will result in an automatic removal from the membership in the Church.

(2) Any member of the Church, who shall without reasonable cause willfully absent himself from the regular services for a period of three (3) consecutive months, or fail to support the church financially for any such period without a reasonable basis, shall be suspended from active membership in the Church. The Pastor and Board of Elders shall inquire, under appropriate circumstances, whether the suspended member is desirous of continuing membership in the Church, and committing to the responsibilities of Church membership.

(3) Unscriptural conduct (See Article Three, Section 12), failure to maintain membership requirements, or doctrinal departure from the Tenets of Faith and Doctrine, shall be considered sufficient grounds upon which any person may be disqualified as a member. Such discipline shall be prayerfully administered according to Scriptures (Matt. 18:15-17; Rom. 16:17; I Cor. 5:9-13; II Thess. 3:6).

(h) Members of this Church and all other professing Christians who regularly attend or fellowship with this Church who err in doctrine, or who engage in conduct that violates Scripture shall be subject to church discipline, including excommunication according to Matthew 18:15-18.

(i) The members of this Church, and all other professing Christians who regularly attend or fellowship with this Church, agree that there shall be no appeal to any court because of the dismissal or because of public statements to the Church during the last stages of church discipline. Members, who are under discipline by the Church, as defined in the previous paragraphs, forfeit and waive the right to resign from this Church. Resignations from membership are possible only by active members who are not under any disciplinary action.

(j) A member, non-member regular attendee, or other individual may be notified that he or she is not to be present upon Church premises for such a period of time as is deemed necessary for the safety and well-being of others on Church premises. Such required absence may, but need not, be concurrent with church discipline of that person.

(k) The Pastor, other members of the church staff and Board of Elders are available for counsel and guidance of any member or non-member regular attendee. The attitude of members toward one another shall be guided by concern for redemption rather than punishment.

Discipline of a church member shall be initiated by filing a formal accusation of a specific church doctrine or policy. This matter shall be reviewed by the Pastor or designee and forwarded to the Board of Deacons for a recommendation for action. The possible actions are: counseling; education, discipline and no action (due to lack of a violation). The recommendation of the Board of Deacons shall be returned to the pastor for a final decision. Disciplinary actions are to be handled in a confidential manner and will be kept in a confidential file by the Pastor or designee.

Discipline of a Deacon shall be initiated by filing a formal accusation of a specific church doctrine or policy. This matter shall be reviewed by the Chairperson of the Board of Deacons, taken before the Board of Deacons, and forwarded to the Pastor or designee for a recommendation for action. The possible actions are: counseling; education, discipline, no action (due to lack of a violation), and temporary suspension. The recommendation of the Board of Deacons shall be returned to the pastor for a final decision. Disciplinary actions are to be handled in a confidential manner and will be kept in a confidential file by the Pastor or designee.

Discipline of a member of the Board of Trustees shall be initiated by filing a formal accusation of a specific church doctrine or policy. This matter shall be reviewed by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, taken before the Board of Trustees, and forwarded to the Pastor or designee for a recommendation for action. The possible actions are: counseling; education, discipline, no action (due to lack of a violation), and temporary suspension. The recommendation of the Board of Deacons shall be returned to the pastor for a final decision. Disciplinary actions are to be handled in a confidential manner and will be kept in a confidential file by the Pastor or designee.

The types of disciplinary action included, but are not limited to counseling; education: requirement for reimbursement of funds, materials, etc.; removal from church office, ministry leadership position or other positions; placement on probationary membership status; involuntary termination of membership; referral for appropriate criminal charges. Any other actions must be specified and approved by the church membership. A disciple who is subjected to disciplinary action may appeal that action to the Pastor or designee. The decision on this appeal is final. The disciple must accept the decision or risk termination of membership for a serious violation of church doctrine or policy.

Section 10. Reinstatement. The Church must restore to fellowship in full forgiveness those persons who show satisfactory evidence of repentance (II Cor. 2:6-8). Persons shall be restored at a duly called Church meeting upon recommendation of the Pastor and Board of Elders and two-thirds majority of the members present and voting.

On written request, signed and filed with the secretary, by any former member of the Church, the Church may reinstate such former member (on such terms as the Church deems appropriate) by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present at a duly called Church Conference.

If membership was terminated pursuant to church discipline, then membership shall be restored according to Article V, Section 9(f)(3) of these Bylaws. To be reinstated, the member must complete the orientation process.

Section 11. Dedication of Children. Parents who are active members of this church desiring publicly to acknowledge their child as a gift from God may have their child dedicated at a celebration service. The service will be scheduled by the Pastor or designee during regular worship service.

The dedication service will serve as a pledge on the part of the parents to bring the child up in the nurture and admonition of the Jesus Christ and for the congregation to provide watch care for the child until such time the child publicly makes a confession of faith, is baptized and becomes an active member. The Church encourages children age 12 to confess sins, be baptized and make application for church membership.

Section 12. Membership Roll. This Church Clerk shall maintain a current role of all individuals who have been received as a member of this church. The Church Clerk in consultation with the deacons, pastor and the Membership Committee shall annually advise the church on the status of each member. The Membership Committee shall define the procedure for membership change notification and/or removal and the procedure for appeal of a membership status change. Only active members and sustaining members shall have voting privileges in any meeting of the Church. Reinstatement of an inactive member shall occur with a renewal of covenant with the Church in a public service of worship.

The membership roll shall distinguish between active membership, inactive membership, probationary membership, a sustaining member, or a member in special watch care status.
